

United States at the 2024 Summer Olympics

The United States of America (USA), represented by the United States Olympic & Paralympic Committee (USOPC), competed at the 2024 Summer Olympics in Paris from July 26 to August 11, 2024. U.S. athletes have appeared in every Summer Olympic Games of the modern era, except for the 1980 edition in Moscow, when America led a sixty-six-nation boycott in protest of the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. As Los Angeles is hosting the 2028 Summer Olympics, the United States marched penultimately before the homebound French team entered Place du Trocadéro during the parade of nations segment of the opening ceremony. Additionally, an American segment featuring H.E.R. and Tom Cruise from Paris, and the Red Hot Chili Peppers, Billie Eilish, Snoop Dogg, and Dr. Dre from Long Beach, was performed during the closing ceremony.

The opening ceremony flag-bearers for the United States were LeBron James and Coco Gauff. James, a two-time Olympic gold medalist, is the first male basketball player to be chosen.^{[1][2]} At 20 years of age, Gauff is the youngest American athlete and the first tennis player to be so honored.^{[3][4]} The closing ceremony flag-bearers were Nick Mead and Katie Ledecky. Mead was part of the U.S. men's four rowing team that won their first gold medal since 1960, while Ledecky, a nine-time Olympic gold medalist, became the most decorated female Olympian to be chosen.^[5]

The United States was represented by more female than male athletes for the fourth consecutive time in the Summer Olympics (278 men and 314 women).

The team finished with a total of 40 gold, 44 silver, and 42 bronze medals.^[6] Tied with China on golds (40), the U.S. placed first in the overall medal tally on a tiebreaker (44–27 in silver & 42–24 in bronze).^[7] The occasion also marked the first time in Summer Olympic history that two countries finished with an equal number of gold medals at the top.^[8]

Background

The United States will be looking to extend its winning streak both in the gold medal count and overall medal count to the fourth and eighth consecutive Olympic Games, respectively. In the run-up to the Paris Olympics, the USOPC debuted an all-new brand platform, One for All, showcasing the many powerful stories of the athletes who make up the collective Team USA.^[11]

Best results (both records)

- Gold medals – 83 (1984 Summer Olympics)
- Total medals – 231 (1904 Summer Olympics)

Data technology firm Gracenote, which specializes in Olympic medal projections, traditionally published its first estimates a year before the Games' commencement, in July 2023. In this release, based on the analysis of recent performances, the United States was predicted to win 43 gold, 43 silver, and 42 bronze medals at Paris for a total of 128 ahead of hosts France (32–20–11) and China (26–20–22).^[12] In January 2024, the projection was adjusted to 37 gold and 129 total medals (China: 35–85, France 26–53).^[13] In May 2024, it was again slightly adjusted to 39 gold, 125 overall (China: 33–90, France 29–55).^{[14][15]}

Team leaders

Rocky Harris was named the chef de mission of the 2024 U.S. Olympic team.^[16] Team USA House is located in the Palais Brongniart, offering guests a home base to cheer on and celebrate American athletes at the Games.^[17] Jose Castillo, a Johnson City, Tennessee entrepreneur, will serve as a host at Team USA House.^[18]

Uniforms

Team USA revealed 2024 Paris Olympics opening ceremony and closing ceremony uniforms on June 18, 2024, designed by Ralph Lauren. The uniforms for the opening ceremony feature a navy blue jacket, light blue striped dress shirt, blue-washed jeans, and beige suede shoes. The closing ceremony uniforms feature a predominantly white look that includes a moto-style denim jacket and jeans, polo, hat, and the same belt and shoes that are part of the opening ceremony outfits.^[19]

Artistic swimming

The United States got the opportunity to field a full-squad of eight artistic swimmers to compete in the open team and women's duet events by topping the list of five highest-ranked nations at the 2024 World Aquatics Championships in Doha, Qatar.^[10]

The full team was announced on June 8, 2024, and featured three-time Olympian Anita Alvarez among the roster of Olympic debutants.^[24]

Athletics (track and field)

U.S. track and field athletes have achieved the entry standards for Paris 2024 either by passing the direct qualifying mark (or time for track and road races) or by virtue of their world ranking in the events listed in the table (a maximum of three athletes each per country).^[25] USA Track & Field kicked off their qualification period with the Olympic Marathon Trials in Orlando, Florida in February. Three women and two men punched their tickets to Paris with the third men's spot still up for grabs.^[10] On February 21, 2024, USATF announced staff rosters for the Olympics: Stanley Redwine would serve as the men's head coach and LaTanya Sheffield would be the women's head coach.^[26]

To assure their selection to the team, athletes competed in the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials on June 21–30, 2024, in Eugene, Oregon.^[27] On July 9, 2024, USA Track & Field officially announced the final roster of 120 athletes (59 men and 61 women) qualified for the 2024 U.S. Olympic track and field team.^[28]

16-year-old Quincy Wilson was selected for the 4x400-meter relay team, becoming the youngest male U.S. track athlete in history.^[29]

Men's tournament

The U.S. men's basketball team qualified for the Olympics by virtue of being one of the two highest-ranked teams from the Americas, securing its berth at the 2023 FIBA World Cup in Indonesia-Japan-Philippines.^{[34][10]}

Team roster

On January 24, 2024, USA Basketball announced a 41-athlete player pool for the 2024 Olympic team. The team is led by head coach Steve Kerr and assisted by Mark Few, Tyronn Lue, and Erik Spoelstra.^[35] The final roster was named on April 17, 2024.^[36] This would be the fourth Olympic tournament for two-time champion Kevin Durant and four-time champion and the NBA's all-time scoring leader LeBron James, while Stephen Curry would make his Olympic debut.^[37] On July 10, 2024, Kawhi Leonard withdrew from the team due to injury and was replaced by Derrick White.^{[38][39]}

Gymnastics

Artistic

The United States entered a full squad in artistic gymnastics.^[10] Five female gymnasts qualified for Paris after achieving a gold-medal victory in the team all-around at the 2022 World Championships in Liverpool, England.^{[127][128][129]} Meanwhile, five male gymnasts qualified for Paris by virtue of a top-nine finish in the team all-around at the 2023 World Artistic Gymnastics Championships in Antwerp, Belgium.

To assure their selection for the team, gymnasts will compete in the 2024 U.S. National Gymnastics Championships on May 30–June 2, 2024, in Fort Worth, Texas,^[130] determining the lineups for the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials on June 27–30, 2024, in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The men's team was named on June 29, 2024. The top all-around finisher who recorded top three scores on at least three apparatuses, Fred Richard, was automatically named to the Olympic team. Brody Malone, Paul Juda, and Asher Hong, the second, fourth, and fifth place finishers, were named to the team by the selection committee. Stephen Nedoroscik, a pommel horse specialist, was the fifth person named to the team.^{[131][132]} Shane Wiskus, a 2020 Olympian, and Khoi Young were named as traveling alternates for the men's team.^{[133][134]}

The women's team was named on June 30, 2024. The top all-around finisher, Olympic and world champion Simone Biles, was named to her third Olympic team as the winner of the Trials in the all-around.^[135] Sunisa Lee, Jordan Chiles, and Jade Carey who finished second, third, and fourth place, were named to their second Olympic team by the selection committee. 16-year-old Hezly Rivera was the fifth person named to the team by the selection committee after placing fifth in the all-around; she became the youngest athlete on the entire 2024 U.S. Olympic delegation.^{[136][137][138]} Joscelyn Roberson and Leanne Wong were named as traveling alternates for the women's team.^[139]

Wrestling

The United States qualified fifteen wrestlers for each of the following classes into the Olympic competition. Seven of them qualified for the Games by virtue of top five results in their respective division at the 2023 World Championships in Belgrade, Serbia.^{[210][211]} Meanwhile, six other athletes later qualified by advancing to the final round at the 2024 Pan American Olympic Qualification Tournament in Acapulco, Mexico.^{[212][213]} The final two wrestlers punched their tickets to Paris by placing in the top three at the 2024 World Wrestling Olympic Qualification Tournament in Istanbul, Turkey.

The final roster was named on April 20, 2024 based on the results of the Olympic Trials, held at the Bryce Jordan Center at Penn State in State College, Pennsylvania on April 19–20, 2024.^{[214][215]} The team features 2016 Olympic champion Kyle Snyder and two-time World Champion 20-year-old Amit Elor.^{[216][217]}
